Answer'd this Letter July 24th 1760

Dear Brother

Lisbon 24 June 1760

It is now upwards of Two Years and a Half since I had the pleasure of hearing from you, your last bearing date of the 5th Oct 1757, & notwithstanding the promise you therein made, of answering my Letter on receipt, as yet have not received a line from you.

I wrote to my Father some time ago, & mentioned to him the great desire I had that in your return home from y^e Suisse, you should take this place in your way, to which he answer'd me, that he wish'd he could lither get you to England, or here, but that you did not chuse to leave the place where you are.
